English is not an official language of the Swiss confederation. This translation of the German version is provided for information purposes only and has no legal force.

ETH Zurich Regulations concerning Business Expenses
11 October 2005 (version as of 1 June 2018)\(^1\)

The Executive Board of ETH Zurich

on the basis of art. 7 para. 2 of the Ordinance concerning the Reimbursement of Business Expenses in the ETH Domain dated 11 April 2002\(^2\) and art. 2 para. 3 of the Personnel Ordinance for the ETH Domain\(^3\) as well as art. 33a, 33b of the Guidelines on the issuing of teaching assignments and remuneration of lecturers at ETH Zurich, version of 17 June 2008\(^4\) issues the following regulations:

Section 1: General Rules

Art. 1 Range of application

1 The provisions in these regulations shall be applicable for business expenses of all employees of the ETH Zurich (professors\(^5\), assistants (doctoral and postdoctoral students), senior scientists, external lecturers\(^6\) and academic, administrative and technical employees) in connection with the performance of job related duties and business trips, as well as with the accommodation and entertainment of guests and/or visitors, to the extent such expenses are not being covered by third parties.

2 They are applicable independent of the source of funds used.\(^7\)

3 Furthermore, invitations to events, conventions etc. are subject to these regulations to the extent the host or organiser does not provide for more restrictive regulations.

4 abrogated\(^8\)

\(^1\) Executive Board’s resolution of 13 March 2018, in effect since 1 January 2019.
\(^2\) SR 172.220.113.43.
\(^3\) SR 172.220.113.
\(^4\) RSETHZ 513.12.
\(^5\) The masculine gender is used in these regulations merely for practical reasons; masculine references apply to members of both sexes equally.
\(^6\) Guidelines on the issuing of teaching assignments and remuneration of lecturers at ETH Zurich, version of 19 June 2012, in effect since 1 February 2013.
\(^7\) Ordinance concerning the Reimbursement of Business Expenses in the ETH Domain of 11 April 2002, SR 172.220.113.43, art. 1 para 3.
\(^8\) Version of 9 December 2014, in effect since 1 January 2015.
Art. 2 Principles

1 Business expenses will be reimbursed by the ETH Zurich to the extent they have been approved in advance by the budget officer\(^9\), they can be documented and they are not being covered by third parties.

2 They can be settled by means of corporate credit cards, in which case the respective provisions of the Financial Regulations of the ETH Zurich shall apply.\(^10\)

2bis Compensation and reimbursements cannot be accumulated.

3 Furthermore, the principles established in the Financial Regulations of the ETH Zurich shall apply.\(^11\)

Art. 3 Terms

1 Business expenses are expenses incurred for:
   a. Business trips within Switzerland and abroad;
   b. The participation in international conventions;
   c. Relocation for business reasons;
   d. Entertainment expenses (hosting of guests).

2 Business trips are journeys by employees travelling on behalf of the ETH Zurich outside their workplace, not including the route from their place of residence to the workplace. The workplace is determined by the respective city or municipal area.

3 Entertainment expenses are business expenses directly incurred by job-related duties such as the hosting of guests and maintaining contacts. They also include ETH-internal employee events, such as Christmas meals, jubilee and birthday gifts.

Art. 4 Non-reimbursable expenses

1 Only those expenses will be reimbursed which are directly associated to job-related duties or business trips.

2 Not included in this are the following:
   a. Travel costs from the place of residence to the workplace; exceptions for external lecturers are defined by the department in charge\(^12\);
   b. Costs for cancelled business trips (‘no show’) if the person involved failed to cancel the trip on time, as well as other costs caused by negligence;
   c. Expenses for private companions;
   d. Expenses in connection with secondary employment\(^13\);
   e. Costs for sabbaticals not expressly noted in the approval\(^14\);
   f. Expenses for private communication fees, identity documents and fines.

---

\(^9\) Financial Regulations of the ETH Zurich (RSETHZ 245), art. 41.
\(^10\) RSETHZ 245, chap. 13, section 2.
\(^11\) RSETHZ 245.
\(^12\) Guidelines on the issuing of teaching assignments and remuneration of lecturers at ETH Zurich, version of 19 June 2012, in effect since 1 February 2013.
\(^13\) Guidelines on secondary employment of professors at ETH Zurich of 12 February 2008 (RSETHZ 501.2).
\(^14\) Directive concerning sabbaticals for professors at ETH Zurich of 12 October 2009 (RSETHZ 510.10).
Section 2: Business trips

Art. 5 Public transportation
1 Wherever possible, public transportation is to be used primarily for business trips.
2 Taxi rides are to be reduced to an absolute minimum.

Art. 6 Flights
1 Flights are to be restricted to an absolute minimum. The least costly arrangement is to be selected. For business trips to neighbouring countries, travel by rail is always to be considered as an alternative.
2 For flights within Europe, the costs for economy class will be reimbursed. On intercontinental flights, the budget officer may approve use of premium economy class or business class. Expenses for first class flights will not be reimbursed. Apart from connecting flights, domestic flights within Switzerland are to be used only in exceptional cases.
3 Members of the Executive Board may fly business class in any case.
4 Additional hotel costs (for overnight stays) may be reimbursed if the most favourable flight arrangement requires a longer stay. It must be documented that the total costs for the flight and overnight accommodation are below the flight fare with no an additional stay.
5 Frequent flyer miles earned on business trips must be used for business purposes only. All private use is forbidden.

Art. 7 Expenses for food (subsistence expenses)
1 Reimbursement for meals on business trips both within in Switzerland and abroad is CHF 27.50 per main meal (lunch and dinner) and CHF 10 for breakfast. If such meals are consumed in a canteen (mensa), half of the above mentioned amount will be reimbursed.
1a Reimbursements for breakfast and dinner can only be claimed in the event of an overnight stay.
1b Third-party sponsors may determine other reimbursements.
2 Higher amounts may be reimbursed if such reimbursement has been agreed upon with the budget officer and the expenses are customary in the respective place. Reimbursement is in any case effected only against presentation of receipts.
3 Meals that are provided at no cost in the aircraft or included in the lodging price or provided by third parties are not subject to reimbursement.

Art. 8 Reimbursement of lodging costs
1 Lodging costs that are incurred on business trips will be reimbursed within the price-range of a middle-class hotel, subject to the provisions of para. 2.
1bis Third-party sponsors may determine other reimbursements.
2 Expenses for overnight stays in first-class hotels may be reimbursed if the sole purpose of the business trip is to participate at an event and/or a convention being held at a first-class hotel.

3 The effective overnight costs will be reimbursed, whereby any items of private nature need to be deducted from the hotel bill.

4 The costs for a gift for the host amounting to a maximum of CHF 80 will be reimbursed for job-related overnight stays in private quarters, regardless of the length of the stay and on presentation of the receipt.

4bis If the overnight stay in private quarters is charged, the host must raise an invoice for the attention of the guest.

Art. 9 Reimbursement of train tickets

1 Train travels in Switzerland and abroad will be reimbursed on the basis of second class fares.

2 Train travels in Switzerland and abroad are allowed in first class if they have been approved by the budget officer prior to the trip.

3 Members of the Executive Board, professors and heads of Administrative departments are entitled to first-class train travel in Switzerland and abroad.

Art. 10 Swiss Federal Railway (SBB) Subscriptions

1 Employees with an employment of at least 50% during a period of at least 6 months are entitled to a free SBB Half Fare Card (‘Halbtax’) or to a reimbursement of 15% on the SBB GA card (‘GA’), with the starting date of the validity period being considered as the relevant point in time.\(^{21}\)

2 The subscriptions are to be used for all business trips and might as well be fully used for private journeys.\(^{22}\)

3 Subscription renewals can be applied for at the earliest one month prior to expiration of the previous subscription.

4 Costs for privately purchased subscriptions will not be reimbursed.

5 In addition to the general rebate mentioned in para. 1, employees using their GA on business trips are entitled to an additional rebate that will be reimbursed by the respective ETH Zurich unit. Supplemental subsidies can only be submitted once the GA has expired. The following scale applies:\(^{23}\)

   a. 30 – 59 business trips per year: additional reduction of one third of the acquisition price;
   b. 60 – 89 business trips per year: additional reduction of two thirds of the acquisition price;
   c. 90 business trips or more per year: full reimbursement of the acquisition price.

6 Round trips by train (outward and return journey), outside of the workplace and excluding any separate trips between the place of residence and workplace, count as a business trip.

7 The Financial Services Department provides application forms for an additional discount on GAs. The forms are to be co-signed by the budget officer.

8 \textit{abrogated}\(^{24}\)

\(^{21}\) Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.

\(^{22}\) Amendment as of 1 June 2018, in effect since 1 July 2018.

\(^{24}\) Version of 9 December 2014, in effect since 1 January 2015.
9 Changing from a Half Fare Card to a GA is possible at the earliest one year after the start of its validity period. Changing from a GA to a Half Fare Card is not possible until the expiration of the validity period.\textsuperscript{25}

Art. 11 Rental cars

\textsuperscript{1} abrogated\textsuperscript{26}

\textsuperscript{2} Rental cars can be obtained at favourable rates through Europcar. Europcar vehicles rented for business purposes in Switzerland are covered by comprehensive insurance. For abroad rented Europcar vehicles for business purposes a most comprehensive insurance coverage (liability, damage and theft)\textsuperscript{27} needs to be arranged separately. In case of damage, a possible retained amount will be charged to the renter resp. the according ETH-unit (institute, department etc.).

\textsuperscript{3} Abroad, services of other rental car companies may be used if they offer better value. In this case too, a most comprehensive insurance coverage (liability, damage and theft) needs to be arranged. In case of damage, a possible retained amount will be charged to the renter resp. the according ETH-unit (institute, department etc.).

Art. 12 Business trips in private vehicles

\textsuperscript{1} Expenses for the use of a private vehicle for business trips and transportation will be reimbursed. The reimbursement is CHF 0.60/km\textsuperscript{28} and includes fuel, insurance, maintenance, amortisation and transportation.

\textsuperscript{2} ETH Zurich has obtained comprehensive insurance which covers damages to private vehicles used on business trips and for transportation on behalf of the ETH Zurich (retention is CHF 500 per case). The insurance also covers any loss of bonus which may occur to the ETH employee who is the accident perpetrator.\textsuperscript{29}

\textsuperscript{3} In case of car damage, the responsible budget officer must confirm in writing that the car was being used for business purposes.

Art. 13 Visa, vaccinations

\textsuperscript{1} It is the personal responsibility of employees to obtain any entry visa for the destination country of their business trips.

\textsuperscript{2} Neither the ETH Zurich nor the Travel Services provider or the booking office can be charged for inconvenience and costs as a result of failure to obtain a visa.

\textsuperscript{3} Expenses for necessary visa\textsuperscript{30}, vaccinations and preventative medical care associated with a business trip will be reimbursed.

Art. 14 Minor business expenses\textsuperscript{31}

\textsuperscript{1} If – in exceptional cases – it is not possible to submit the original receipt for minor business expenses (up to a maximum of CHF 100), a self-issued record specifying such expenses may be submitted.

---

\textsuperscript{25} Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.

\textsuperscript{26} Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.

\textsuperscript{27} Executive Board’s resolution of 11 April 2006.

\textsuperscript{28} Ordinance concerning the Reimbursement of Business Expenses in the ETH Domain of 11 April 2002, SR 172.220.113.43, Art. 4 para 4.

\textsuperscript{29} Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.

\textsuperscript{30} Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.

\textsuperscript{31} Version as of 20 January 2009, in effect since 1 January 2009.
Business expenses up to CHF 100 can be paid from the petty cash funds. Expenses for business-related telephone calls, fax messages and for internet access will be reimbursed.

Section 3: Entertainment expenses

Art. 15

1 Entertainment expenses may be incurred only by the budget officers.

2 Entertainment expenses will be reimbursed within the context of effective expenses. Restraint is always to be exercised in such type of expenses. The costs incurred must be in the interests of ETH Zurich.

3 The charging is recorded in the intended process and must contain the following information:
   a. Purpose of the event, description of the group/party and the number of internal and external attendees,
   b. Date and location of the event or

Section 4: Advances and settlement

Art. 16 Advances

1 Employees are entitled to obtain an advance in connection with the expected costs of a business trip or other business related expenses.

2 Grounds must be given for the advance, approved by the budget officer.

3 All advances will be remitted exclusively to the salary account of the applicant by the Accounting Department.

4 Advances and any cost reimbursements must be accounted for and reimbursed in the intended process.

5 Surplus payments resulting from advances are to be repaid without delay.

Art. 17 Reimbursement of business expenses

1 Only actually incurred expenses, for which hard copy or electronic receipts (e.g. receipt, proof of purchase, train ticket or flight ticket) are provided, are reimbursed. Claims for the reimbursement of business expenses are to be submitted immediately after the expenses occurred along with the receipts. Missing receipts must be clearly justified in the intended process. Expenses for business trips need to be clarified by indicating the purpose, destination, date and reason of the trip.

2 The approvals procedure in relation to the reimbursement of business expenses are regulated under Art. 41 of the ETH Zurich Financial Regulations.

---

33 Version as of 21 December 2011, in effect since 1 January 2012.
34 Version as of 9 December 2014, in effect since 1 January 2015.
35 Version as of 1 June 2019, in effect since 1 January 2019.
The Accounting Department may request additional information and may refuse reimbursement of business expenses if they do not correspond to the provisions of the Financial Regulations of the ETH Zurich or to this regulation.

Section 5: Final provisions

Art. 18 Revocations of prior law
The Travel and Expenses Regulations of the ETH Zurich dated December 2001 are revoked with the issuance of the regulations.

Art. 19 Coming into effect
These regulations become effective on 1 January 2006.

11 October 2005 On behalf of the Executive Board: President: O. Kübler
Delegate: P. Kottusch

Amended on 9 December 2014
On behalf of the Executive Board: The President: R. Eichler

36 Travel and Expenses Regulations of the former Finance Department of the ETH Zurich (Status: 5 April 2002).